EDITORIAL

Not sure how much they'll be in next months T&T as no club trial(s) coming up in May with no Charity Trial being run by the ACTC in May (or at all?) this year so that only leaves the entry form for the re-scheduled Chattisham Trial.

Time to sharpen those pencils boys and girls.

Remember Motor Cycle Scrambles at Hadleigh?

To celebrate 30 years of Scrambles and Motocross at this venue, on Sunday 13th May 2018 there is a presentation, memorabilia and DVD's at the Mountain Bike Hub, Chapel Lane, Hadleigh, Essex SS7 2PP. The presentations are free and take place between 11am and 3pm. The Southend & DMCC ran many events at The Salvation Army Colony Hadleigh Essex from 1953 - 1983 with British Championships and TV meetings for BBC and ITV World of Sport.

The venue, as a natural arena with great visibility and a tough terrain provided excellent racing, that in 2012 was designated the Olympic Mountain Bike Track and is now open to the public.

With so many of the country's top scrambles and motocross riders, including World and British champions regularly competing at Hadleigh, all riders, ex-riders, spectators and officials are very welcome.

Please save the date in your diary, we would love to see you there or call 07947 805858
